

PETROZAVODSK STATE UNIVERSITY

UNIVERSITY OF HELSINKI

Dear colleagues!

We are glad to invite you to participate in the Annual International Workshop on Advances in Methods of Information and Communication Technology (AMICT'2014), 21.10.-23.10.2014, Petrozavodsk, Republic of Karelia, Russia.

This workshop is a result of the long-term cooperation between the computer science departments of the universities of Helsinki and Petrozavodsk (UH and PetrSU). Starting from 1994, the workshop had had the name "Finnish Data Processing week (FDPW) at the University of Petrozavodsk" and in the year 2006, FDPW has been renamed to AMICT.

Programs of the previous seminars can be found at <http://www.cs.karelia.ru/fdpw/index.php.en>

Program Committee

supports invitation for Russian visa, if needed, and other mobility issues)

We invite full papers and short talks submission in various ICT areas that include, but are not restricted to:

- Information technology,
- Network communication,
- Information systems,
- Theoretical and applied computer science,
- Algorithms and Modeling.

Both type of submission may be devoted to presentations of specific systems, experiments, theoretical research, as well as more general, philosophical/educational/methodological presentations. The workshop will include related panel discussions for these topics if there are enough accepted talks.

Full papers submitted will be considered for publication in the journal

Proceedings of Petrozavodsk State University, URL: <http://uchzap.petsu.ru/?lang=en>

(included in VAK list and Russian Index of Scientific Citations database)

For full papers submission please use rules for authors at URL:

<http://uchzap.petsu.ru/req.php?lang=en>

You may submit paper in Russian language, but English language is recommended. We recommend paper size up to ten pages (for the page format see the journal rules).

Workshop and accommodations are in the Petrozavodsk city. The organizing committee can help and advice in booking hotels if needed.

The registration fee is 2800 rub for a participant whose talk represents a Russian organization and 140 euro for other participants. The fee includes preparation of invitations to Russia, coffee breaks, ceremonial banquet, local transport (by bus), renting rooms and equipment, registration in Russia, administration, and organizational expenses. Payments must be in rubles.

To contribute for the workshop please send following information
(to Olga Bogoyavlenskaya, olbgvl@cs.karelia.ru).

1. Names of a participant, her/his position, and degree.
2. Title of your talk and info about co-authors (names, positions, degrees).
3. Abstract (about 200 words) for short message and/or
